PROFILE

In 2006 my career began as a freelance motion designer in Milan, where I worked for a wide range of clients: Sky Sports, MTV and Nickelodeon. I moved to Australia in 2012, where I joined the team at Fox Sports as Head of Graphics, until 2016. As Head of Graphics, I oversaw the design team, directed and produced a range of projects from title sequences, show packages, promos and rebrands. In 2018 I found my own motion graphic studio: 2sharp.
